Benefits.

(2) The Commission shall effect monthly contributions from the teacher's salary and remit the same together with the Commission's equal contribution to the Fund.

Act No. 45 of 2013

(3) A teacher may make voluntary contributions towards National Social Security Fund in addition to the statutory deductions irrespective of the terms of service.

(4) The benefits payable under this regulation shall consist of the total sum standing to the credit of the teacher at the time, which may include the member's contributions, and employer's contributions together with interest accrued over the years of membership.

PART XIV—LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

(This Part provides for the conditions under which legal assistance is given to a teacher in case of legal proceedings arising out of discharge of duty and the procedures to be followed when seeking the assistance. The part also to provide for circumstances under which a teacher may qualify for legal assistance from the Commission).

183. The Commission shall not be involved in any way in proceedings where a teacher is charged with a criminal offence.

Criminal Proceedings.

184. (1) Where a civil suit is instituted against a teacher for an act or omission arising out of the discharge of the teacher's official duty, the teacher may apply to the Commission for legal assistance.

Civil Proceedings.

(2) An application under this regulation shall be accompanied with a report prepared by the county director which shall provide for details of the particulars of the case.

(3) The Commission shall in considering whether to undertake the defence for a teacher in civil proceedings, evaluate whether the subject of litigation falls within the mandate of the Commission and the financial risk involved.

(4) Where a teacher requires legal assistance from the Commission, the teacher shall make an application to the Commission immediately upon receiving summons, provided that the teacher shall not brief a private advocate.

(5) The Commission may where proper procedure is not followed, decline to pay any part of the cost of defence or any damages or costs which may be awarded against the teacher.

(6) Where upon the advice of the Attorney General, the Government undertakes the defence of a teacher, the Attorney General shall provide free legal representation, and shall instruct a State Counsel or a private advocate and the cost of such defence will be a charge on the vote of the Attorney General.

(7) Where the Attorney General appoints an advocate to represent a teacher, the Attorney General shall consult the Commission for any necessary instructions or directions.

(8) Any damages or costs awarded against a teacher in civil proceedings shall be met from the public funds where the action is nominal against the teacher and is, in substance and in fact, against the Commission.

(9) The Commission shall in indemnifying the teacher consult the Attorney General and the National Treasury.

(10) Where the Government accepts liability for damage and costs, the Commission shall meet the liability out of its vote.

185. (1) A teacher shall not institute civil proceedings arising out of any circumstances connected with the teacher's official position, or with any activity in which the teacher has been engaged in the course of official duties, without first obtaining the written consent of the Attorney General through the Commission, whether or not the teacher requires legal assistance.

Instituting Civil Proceedings.

(2) The Commission shall not be involved in any way in civil proceedings in regard to litigation unconnected with the official position or duty of a teacher.

PART XV—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

186. (a) Every office of the Commission, at every level, shall keep at least two copies of this Code.

Code to be displayed in all Commissions' offices.

THE SCHEDULE ABOVE REFERS TO RULES GOVERNING THE AWARD OF SCHOLARSHIP MADE BY THE GOVERNMENT OF KENYA TENABLE IN OR OUTSIDE KENYA

(In this context "Scholarship" includes awards made under any Government Scholarship Scheme, Training Courses and Study leave).

1. Every person awarded a Scholarship by the Government which is tenable in Kenya or outside Kenya is required to comply with the following rules:-

- (a) To accept such transport to and from the venue of training as is provided by the Government.
- (b) To proceed to the institution as directed and begin the course of studies for which the award was made and to continue with such studies for as long as prescribed unless he/she is prevented from so doing by sickness proved by a certificate from a recognized Medical Practitioner or by circumstances beyond his control recognized as such by the Principal Secretary – Directorate of Public Service Management or any other person in that behalf.

- (c) To reside in an approved college, hostel or lodgings.
- (d) To devote his/her whole time to following the course of instruction for which the Scholarship is awarded unless permission to undertake other work or studies or to modify his course in content or duration is granted by the Teachers Service Commission.
- (e) Not to engage in any occupation or activity which is considered detrimental to his/her progress in the course of studies prescribed for him/her and/or detrimental to his/her health.
- (f) To satisfy the Commission as to attendance, conduct and progress by report from the head of the institution or such other approved person at the institution in which he/she is studying.
- (g) At all times to conduct himself/herself as an honest and faithful student and to the best of his/her power and ability faithfully to observe, obey and perform such instructions and directions as may be given to him/her from time to time in whatever form such instructions may take.
- (h) To submit to a medical examination as directed; it being understood that the scholarship may be suspended or terminated if the report from such medical examination indicates that he/she is unfit to complete his/her studies owing to ill health. The Scholarship may be suspended or terminated if he/she absents himself/herself from studies for more than six months owing to ill health.
- (i) To sit for and pass any prescribed examinations or approved group of examinations within the time fixed by the authorities of the institution at which he/she is attending or by the Principal Secretary – Directorate of Public Service Management or any other person in that behalf unless he/she is prevented from so doing by sickness proved by a certificate from a recognized Medical Practitioner or by circumstances beyond his/her control recognized as such by the Principal Secretary – Directorate of Public Service Management or any other person in that behalf.
- (j) To complete the course without interruption and to fulfill all the conditions under which the Scholarship was awarded.

2. The Scholarship may be suspended or terminated if the person awarded a Scholarship fails to comply with any of the foregoing rules. Where a scholarship, tenable outside Kenya is terminated, the cost of a return passage will be met by Government provided that the person returns to Kenya at the earliest opportunity. If such a person without reasonable excuse fails to travel at the earliest opportunity, he/she shall forfeit his/her right to free passage and all other allowances to which he/she would otherwise be entitled.

3. Whenever direction, intention, approval or consent is indicated or required by any of the foregoing rules, the same may be given or signified by the Principal Secretary – Directorate of Public Service Management or such person as he/she may appoint by notice in the Gazette.

4. All beneficiaries will be required to sign the following declaration in the presence of a Magistrate or an Officer of the Commission within the Human Resource Department authorized in that behalf by the Secretary/Chief Executive.

I I.D NO:hereby declare that I have read the foregoing rules and/or the Commission's Study leave Policy and agree that the Scholarship/Study leave awarded to me shall be governed by these rules and that in the event of a breach by me of any of the rules, my Scholarship/Study leave may be suspended or terminated forthwith.

FORMULAE FOR CALCULATION OF PENSION AND GRATUITIES

Unreduced monthly Pension: Pension paid to a teacher who does not exercise the option to commute a quarter of his pension. There is no lump sum payment.

Formula:

$$\text{Unreduced Monthly Pension} = \frac{\text{No. of months worked}}{480} \times \text{Annual Basic Salary} \times \frac{1}{12}$$

Commuted Pension (lump sum): It is that lump sum that is paid after opting to commute part of their pension. It is paid at a rate of $\frac{1}{4}$ of one's pension entitlement multiplied by 20.

Formula:

$$\text{Lump sum} = \frac{\text{No. of Months worked}}{480} \times \text{Annual Basic Salary} \times \frac{1}{4} \times 20$$

Reduced Monthly Pension: Amount paid monthly after a $\frac{1}{4}$ has been paid as above.

Formula:

$$\text{Monthly Pension} = \frac{\text{No. of months worked}}{480} \times \text{Annual Basic Salary} \times \frac{3}{4} \times \frac{1}{12}$$

NB: $480 = 12 \times 40$ where 40 is expected years of service for an officer employed at 18 years old

DEATH GRATUITY

Death Gratuity for a Teacher, who has taught for at least ten years, is calculated as if the teacher had retired on the date of death as per the formula above. This is followed by monthly pension which is paid to the next-of-kin for five (5) years from the date of death.

MARRIAGE GRATUITY

It is paid at the rate of $1/12^{\text{th}}$ of month's pensionable emoluments for each completed month of pensionable emoluments subject to one year's salary whichever is less.

Hypothetical Case:

A teacher earning Kshs.30,000 per month has worked for ten years:

$$1 \times 30,000 \times 10 \times 12 = 300,000/=$$

DECLARATION BY A TEACHER ENTERING THE TEACHING SERVICE

(To be signed in DUPLICATE by a teacher on first appointment)

do declare that my attention has been drawn to the provisions of the Official Secrets Act, 1968, which are set out on the back of this document, and I am fully aware of the serious consequences which may follow any breach of these provisions.

I understand that the sections of the Official Secrets Act set out on the back of this document, cover material published in a speech, lecture, or radio or television broadcast, or in the Press, or in book form. I am aware that I should not divulge any information gained by me as a result of my appointment, to any unauthorized person, either orally or in writing without the previous official sanction in writing of the Department appointing me, to which written application should be made and two copies of the proposed publication be forwarded. I understand also that I am liable to be prosecuted if I publish without official sanction any information I may acquire in the course of my tenure of an official appointment (unless it has already officially been made public) or retain without official sanction any sketch, plan, model, article, note or official documents which are no longer needed for my official duties, and that these provisions apply not only during the period of my appointment but also after my appointment has ceased.

EXTRACTS FROM THE OFFICIAL SECRETS ACT, 1968

Part II, section 3 of the Official Secrets Act, 1968, provides as follows:

3. (1) Any person who, for any purpose prejudicial to the safety or interests of the Republic –
 - (a) approaches, inspects, passes over, is in the neighbourhood of or enters a prohibited place; or
 - (b) makes any plan that is calculated to be or might be or is intended to be directly or indirectly useful to a foreign power or disaffected person; or
 - (c) obtains, collects, records, publishes or communicates in whatever manner to any other person any code word, plank, articles, document or information which is calculated to be or might be or is intended to be directly or indirectly useful to a foreign power or disaffected person shall be guilty of an offence.
- (2) Any person who takes a photograph of a prohibited place or who takes a photograph in a prohibited place, without having first obtained the authority of the Sub County Director of the prohibited place shall be guilty of an offence.
- (3) Any person who has in his possession or under his control any code word, plan, article, document or information which –
 - (a) relates to or is used in a prohibited place or anything in a prohibited place; or
 - (b) has been made or obtained in contravention of this Act; or
 - (c) has been entrusted in confidence to him by any person holding office under the Government; or
 - (d) has been entrusted in confidence to him owing to his position as a person who holds or has held a contract made on behalf of the Government or a contract the performance of which in whole or in part is carried out in a prohibited place or as a person who is or has been employed under a person who holds or has held such an office or contract, and who for any purpose or in any manner prejudicial to the safety or interests of the Republic –
 - (i) uses the code word, plan article, document or information; or
 - (ii) retains the plan, article or document in his possession or under his control when he has no right so to retain it or when it is contrary to his duty so to retain it, or fails to comply with all directions issued by lawful authority with regard to its return or disposal, shall be guilty of an offence.
- (4) Any person who, having in his possession or under his control any plan, article, document or information that relates to munitions of war, communicates it directly or indirectly to any foreign power, or to any other person for any purpose or in any manner prejudicial to the safety or interests of the Republic, shall be guilty of an offence.

(5) Any person who receives any code word, plan, article, document or information knowing or having reasonable grounds for believing at the time when he receives it that the code word, plan, article, document or information is communicated to him in contravention of this Act, shall be guilty of an offence, unless he proves that the communication to him of the code word, plan, article, document or information was contrary to his wishes.

(6) Any person who has in his possession or under his control any code word, plan, article, document or information of a kind or in the circumstances mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) inclusive of subsection (3) of this section, and who -

- (a) communicates the code word, plan, article, document or information to any person, other than a person to whom he is authorized to communicate it or to whom it is his duty to communicate it; or
- (b) retains the plan, article or document in his possession or under his control when he has no right so to retain it or when it is contrary to his duty so to retain it, or fails to comply with all directions issued by lawful authority with regard to the return or disposal thereof; or
- (c) fails to take reasonable care of, or so conducts himself as to endanger the safety of, the code word, plan article document or information., shall be guilty of an offence and liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years.

(7) Any person who-

- (a) allows any other person to have possession of any official document issued for his use alone, or communicates to any other person any code word so issued; or
- (b) without lawful authority or excuse, has in his possession any official document or code issued for the use alone of some person other than himself; or
- (c) on obtaining possession of any official document by finding or otherwise neglects or fails to restore it to the person or authority by whom or for whose use it was issued or to a police officer, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years.

Part IV, section 20 of the Official Secrets Act, 1968, provides as follows:

20. Any person who is guilty of an offence under this Act for which no penalty is specifically provided shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding fourteen years.
