

#OpenGovInEducation

Launch Webinar

OPEN GOVERNMENT IN EDUCATION

IIEP-UNESCO Case Study on Social Audits in India

WEBLINK

Click here to register:
bit.ly/3vaAmgd

This webinar will present the main findings of IIEP-UNESCO's new case study on social audits in India.

The study forms part of IIEP's ongoing research 'Open government: Learning from experience'. It focuses on the innovative social audit project piloted in India under the aegis of the National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCPCR). Participants will discuss key takeaways and lessons learnt from this experience.

AGENDA

Welcome

K. BHATTY, Senior Visiting Fellow, Centre for Policy Research

Address and Background of Social Audit Study

M. POISSON, Programme Specialist, IIEP-UNESCO, Paris, France

Presentation of study findings

K. BHATTY, A. CHOWDHURY, P. BANJARA

Emerging Initiatives in Social Audits

R. SUBRAHMANYAM, Secretary, Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, Government of India

A. MISHRA, Vice President, BGVS

M. ANUKURI, Advisor, School Education, Government of Andhra Pradesh

G. SINGH, State coordinator, Social Audit Unit, Government of Jharkhand

S. KIDAMBI, Director, Society for Social Audit, Accountability and Transparency

A. KARWAL, Secretary School Education, Ministry of Education, Government of India

Discussion

DATE & TIME

20 October 2021

11:00am – 1:15pm
(IST)

07:30am – 9:45am
(CEST)

CONTACT

 @ETICO_IIEP

www.etico.iiep.unesco.org

<https://www.cprindia.org/>

unesco

CENTRE FOR POLICY
RESEARCH